

The Glass Slipper Summer 2011 Camp Schedule

Manners & Tea Time, Too! July 11-15 from 9am-noon, Cost: $140 per child. Learning manners is fun when it's Modern Manners. Each child will role-play real life situations, play games and enjoy manners-related activities. The second half of the morning will be a "royal" to do with games, crafts and tea fare. Themes include fairy Princess, Hawaiian Luau, Fancy Nancy, Princess Pirate and more. Ages: K-5th grades.

Modern Manners Camp, June 20-23 from 9 a.m.-11am; Cost: $125 per child. Nora Cline, owner of Modern Manners, teaches social and table etiquette to boys and girls ages 8-12. See Modern Manners camp listing for more information (discounts do not apply to this camp).

Young at Art, Elementary Young at Art, July 18-21 from 9am-noon, Cost per child $140 (grades k-5th) and Preschool Young at Art, July 26, 27, 28 from 9-11am, Cost per child $90 (3-5 year olds). Calling all mini-Picasso's! Campers will learn about a new artist every day and create something they may have created...if they were as creative as our campers!

Knitting Camp, June 28-30 from 10am-1pm; Cost: $150. Susan Campbell, owner of Little Voice Knitting, will teach campers how to cast on and cast off, finger knitting, knit stitch and purl stitch (if time allows). Lunch and all supplies are included in the cost. Ages 9 and up.

Scrap-booking Day Camps, August 2 from 9-noon Grades 1-3rd and August 4 from 9-noon Grades 4-6th. Cost per child $50. Each child will bring photographs from home to create a scrapbook keepsake. Campers will learn how to preserve and care for their photos, use their creativity designing pages and journaling. Day campers will receive a scrapbook and tools to continue their scrap-booking at home!

Participants that register before June 1, 2011 will receive 15% off camp registration. We also offer a 10% family discount for families registering 2 or more children. For more information contact Stacey Haney at shaney@glassslipperteas.com, or call (614) 433-9171.
